Numb. 9047.

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 6, to Tuesday April 9, 1751.

Lisbon, March 12.

THE Court is ſtill at Salvaterra, and it is generally believed will not return to this City till towards the End of this Month. 'Tis ſaid that a numerous Promotion of Land and Sea Officers will ſoon be made; and 'tis likewiſe ſaid, that ſome new Ordonnances, greatly in Favour of the Commerce of this Kingdom, will be publiſhed ſoon after the Return of the Court. Count Stahrenberg, having finiſhed the Commiſſion he came hither to execute on the Part of their Imperial Majeſties, is preparing to ſet out on his Return to Vienna. A general Review of the Troops of this Kingdom being to be made the latter End of next Month, or the Beginning of May, all the Officers are ſucceſſively ſetting out from hence for their reſpective Regiments. We are in daily Expectation of the Arrival in this Port of ſeveral Ships richly laden from the Indies.

Lucca, March 23. The Accommodation of the Differences which have ſubſiſted for ſome Time between this Republick and the Regency of the Grand Dutchy of Tuſcany, in relation to the new Roads we had begun to make in the Mountains of Grafignana, having been left to the Arbitration of the Court of Vienna, we are in daily Expectation of hearing the News of the Deciſion of that Affair, which we have great Reaſon to believe will be in our Favour.

Turin, March 24. The King and all the Royal Family continue to enjoy perfect Health, and the Dutcheſs of Savoy advances happily in her Pregnancy. Count Colloredo, Envoy Extraordinary from their Imperial Majeſties to this Court, having had his Audiences of Leave laſt Week, ſet out Poſt Yeſterday for Vienna.

Petersbourg, March 26. General Lieven is for the preſent appointed Commander of the Troops aſſembled in the conquered Provinces. An Officer is arrived here from Cronſtadt with Advice, that the Fleet of this Empire is ready to put to Sea upon the firſt Notice.

Venice, March 26. The Court of Vienna having entirely agreed to the Alterations made here in ſome of the Articles for ſettling the Affair of Aquileja, the Senate has ſent Orders to M. Tron, the Republick's Ambaſſador at Vienna, to conclude the Treaty.

Milan, March 30. Count Colloredo, whom their Imperial Majeſties have recalled from his Embaſſy at the Court of Turin, and appointed Commander of the Imperial Troops in Lombardy, is arrived here on his Way to Vienna, from whence 'tis expected he will ſoon return hither, in order to take upon him that Employment; and the Great Chancellor Count Chriſtiani is ordered to repair to the Court of the King of Sardinia, to take Care of the Affairs of their Imperial Majeſties at that Court in his Room. The Report lately ſpread, that the Troops in this Dutchy were to form a Camp this Summer, appears to have no Foundation, at leaſt no Preparations of any Kind are as yet making for it. We learn by Letters from Venice, that as the Corſairs of Barbary continue very much to infeſt their Coaſt, and greatly interrupt their Commerce, it had been reſolved to augment conſiderably the Maritime Forces of that Republick, to the End that they may ſoon be in a Condition of forming a ſufficient Squadron of Ships and Veſſels to protect their Trade, and give Chace to thoſe Corſairs.

Warſaw, April 3. The Waters of the Viſtula, which had overflowed a great Part of the Country in the Neighbourhood of this City, and thereby done great Damage, are at length greatly abated, and we hope will now ſoon be all gone off again. We have received Advice, that Prince Leon of Radzivil, Great Cup-Bearer of the Dutchy of Lithuania, died a few Days ago at his Country Seat of an Apoplectick Fit. The Tribunal of Petrikau continues its Seſſions with great Succeſs under the Direction of M. de Czarnolowſky, who preſides there in the Abſence of the Marſhal of the Crown.

Vienna,

[Price Two-pence.]

Vienna, April 3. The Empreſs Queen is ſo far recovered from her late Lying-in, that ſeveral Ladies were laſt Sunday admitted to viſit her in her Apartment for the firſt Time. And her Imperial Majeſty has given Orders, on the Occaſion of her happy Delivery and Recovery, that all the Deſerters from her Troops, who were condemned to work at the Fortifications, ſhould be immediately ſet at Liberty on Condition of their joining their reſpective Regiments.

Copenhagen, April 3. The Anniverſary of the King of Denmark's Birth-day having been celebrated here on the 31ſt paſt, in the uſual Manner, ſeveral Promotions were made on that Occaſion; the Chief of which are theſe, General Lerche is made a Count; General Levetrau and the Privy Counſellor M. Brockorff have received the Order of the Elephant; and the Colonels Baurenfeind, Caſtagna and Caltenborn are advanced to the Rank of Major Generals of Infantry.

Dreſden, April 3. The Queen has been a little indiſpoſed for ſome Days paſt, but we hope her Illneſs will be attended with no very bad Conſequences.

Bruſſels, April 12. Count Stampa, one of Prince Charles of Lorrain's Adjutant Generals, having had a Regiment given him by the Queen of Hungary, ſet out from hence on Friday Morning laſt for Vienna, in order to take Poſſeſſion of the ſame; and to compliment their Imperial Majeſties, in the Name of Prince Charles of Lorrain, upon the Birth of the young Archdutcheſs. We are aſſured that the Government have at Length granted a Permiſſion to the Magiſtrates of the City of Mons, to make a new Canal from that City to Ath; and that in Conſequence thereof, they are making Preparations in order to begin that Work.

Hambourg, April 13. This Morning the Swediſh Reſident received, by an Expreſs from Stockholm, the melancholy News of the Death of the King of Sweden, who died the 6th Inſtant; and the Day following the Prince Succeſſor was proclaimed King, and received the Compliments of the Senators of Sweden upon the Occaſion. The Magiſtrates of this City have already given Notice, that a Veſſel is ready to ſail for Algiers with a new Paſs, agreeable to the Treaty lately concluded between this City and that Republick.

Hague, April 15. The States of Holland and Weſtfrizeland, who were aſſembled Yeſterday, have to Day continued their Deliberations. The Deputies of the ſeveral Colleges of the Admiralty of this Kingdom, who arrived here a few Days ago, have already entred upon Buſineſs.

Whitehall, March 30, 1751.

It having been repreſented to the King, That in the Night between the 31ſt Day of October and the 1ſt of November laſt, a Hay-rick belonging to the Right Honourable the Earl of Uxbridge, which ſtood near his Seat called Beaudeſert, in the County of Stafford, was with a malicious Deſign (as is ſuppoſed) ſet on Fire, and reduced to Aſhes; His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons concerned in ſetting the ſaid Hay-rick on Fire, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them, who ſhall diſcover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices in the ſaid Crime, ſo that he, ſhe or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a farther Encouragement, the ſaid Earl of Uxbridge doth hereby Promiſe a Reward of Twenty Pounds, to any Perſon or Perſons making ſuch Diſcovery as aforeſaid, to be paid upon the Conviction of the Offender or Offenders.

The Commiſſioners appointed to put in Execution an Act of Parliament paſſed in the Kingdom of Ireland, for making Rivers navigable, having taken under their Conſideration the Navigation of the River Shannon, and different Methods being propoſed for effecting the ſame, they do hereby give Notice, that any Perſon of Skill in Projecting, and alſo well verſed in the Execution of Works of that Nature, may apply to Iſham Baggs, Eſq; (Secretary to the ſaid Commiſſioners) in Dublin, ſetting forth his Qualifications, and the Proofs thereof; and in Caſe the ſaid Commiſſioners ſhall, upon due Enquiry, be ſatisfied of the Capacity of ſuch Perſon for their Service, they will contract to give him a very ample Recompence for going over to Ireland, and for directing and conducting the ſaid intended Navigation to the final Completion thereof.

Dublin Caſtle,
9 March 1750.

Signed by Order,
Iſham Baggs.
